

Tax Incentive Review Council Vacancies

(Reynoldsburg and Licking County)

The Reynoldsburg Tax Incentive Review Council and the Licking County Tax Incentive Review Council have vacancies for Etna Township residents who have an interest in applying. These positions are two-year terms, and the Councils meet once a year to review economic development incentives awarded to companies. These Councils review the incentives and the number of jobs for each company to ensure the companies are in compliance with the incentive agreements.

Interested Etna residents should forward a letter of interest and any supporting documentation to office@etnatownship.com no later than Monday January 20, 2025. Call (740) 927-7717 or stop by town hall at 81 Liberty Street, Etna, during normal working hours for additional information.
